Emilie WATY is a Partner in the Corporate and Finance Litigation department. Prior to joining the firm in 2012, she was a lawyer within the most prominent Luxembourg law firm. Before that, she also worked at a well-respected notary based in the city center of Luxembourg.

She has been an expert in commercial, corporate, and finance litigation for now more than 18 years in Luxembourg. Her expertise encompasses shareholders and directors' liability litigation cases, as well as investment funds related disputes. In her areas of expertise, Emilie is handling complex multi-jurisdictional and cross-border litigation and arbitration cases with distinctive precision and finesse. She is also praised for her strategic approach in handling recognition and enforcement proceedings relating to foreign court decisions and arbitral awards.
