FAQ: How we can help

- Whom do we represent?

Our team provides strategic advice to major corporate clients, to noteholders or bondholders, to institutional investors, and to major commercial creditors, in both local and cross-border insolvency matters.

- What sets us apart?

Our Restructuring and Insolvency team has a unique and market-leading expertise in the field since more than twenty-five years. Members of our team have in the past themselves acted as court-appointed receivers, and for more than ten years, a Senior Partner of our firm as acted as a liquidator in one of the world's largest bank insolvencies ever, providing our team an absolute unique and exceptional expertise in this field.
