Rosario GRASSO is a co-founder of the firm. Senior Partner and Head of the Criminal law department, he is one of the leading white-collar crime defense lawyers in the Luxembourg market and has an excellent reputation in criminal law, anti-corruption and compliance AML-related matters.

His expertise and experience of more than 25 years not only allow him to advise and defend clients in tort and criminal law cases, as well as insurance litigation matters, but also to assist and train professionals in order to be fully compliant with preventive anti-money laundering legislation and anti-corruption policies.

Rosario was elected as chair on the Luxembourg Bar Council in July 2014. He has also authored several articles on anti-corruption and anti-money laundering law and is frequently invited to speak at conferences on these topics.
