

Rosario GRASSO

Partner

Rosario, co-founder of the firm, is one of the leading white-collar crime defence lawyers in the Luxembourg market and has an excellent reputation in criminal law related matters.

His expertise and experience of more than 20 years not only allow him to advise clients on tort and criminal law as well as on insurance litigation matters, but also to assist and train professionals in order to be fully compliant with our preventive anti-money laundering legislation and anti-corruption policies.

Rosario was elected as chair on the Luxembourg Bar Council in July 2014. He published several articles on anti-corruption and anti-money laundering law and is regularly speaker at conferences regarding these subjects.
