

Philippe NEY

Partner

Philippe is specialised in employment and social law. He advises on all aspects of employment law (including litigation, negotiation of social plans and collective bargaining agreements, issues with staff delegation and joint works council, immigration, labour law questions in relation with restructurings, etc.).

He also advises clients on data protection matters (including due diligences at clients' premises, assistance with CNPD applications, questions in relation with surveillance at the workplace, etc.).

He is a lecturer in employment law at the House of Training and is a regular speaker at seminars and training sessions (public and in-house).

Practice Areas

- Employment & Social

Education

- L.L.M. (Droit international), University of Glasgow, 2006
- Maîtrise en Droit des affaires, University of Strasbourg, 2005

Languages

- English, French, German, Luxembourgish

Member of

- Luxembourg Bar, admitted in 2007
- Employment Law Specialists Association (E.L.S.A.), Luxembourg
- Union Internationale des avocats (UIA), Member of the UIA Labour Law Commission

Publications

- Droit d'établissement : les nouveautés essentielles apportées par la loi du 2 septembre 2011 réglementant l'accès aux professions d'artisan, de commerçant, d'industriel ainsi qu'à certaines professions libérales, Entreprises Magazine, April 2012 (co-author)